

Agenda
Maryland Coastal Bays Program
Science and Technical Advisory Committee
January 18, 2017

Aquaculture and Restoration Ecology Laboratory (AREL)
Horn Point Environmental Laboratory
Cambridge, Maryland, USA

- |               |  |
|---------------|--|
| 8:45 - 9:00   | Coffee, Donut, Morning Talk Time   |
| 9:00 - 9:15   | Bill Dennison (UMCES-IAN) – Welcome, Introductions, Announcements  |
| 9:15 – 9:45   | Katherine Munson & Bob Mitchell (Worcester County) Draft TMDL Implementation Plan  |
| 9:45 – 10:15  | Jen Dindinger (UM Extension) – Intro and Seeking Input to Climate Change Vulnerability Assessment  |
| 10:15 – 10:30 | Break  |
| 10:30 - 10:50 | Rebecca Peters (UMES) – Habitat use, Growth, and Site Fidelity of Juvenile Black Sea Bass, Centropristis striata , in the Maryland Coastal Bays using Mark-Recapture. |
| 10:50 – 11:10 | Cara Schweitzer (UMES) - Effects of Fishing Traps on Black Sea Bass Essential Fish Habitat.  |
| 11:10 – 11:30 | Salina Parveen (UMES) - Vibrio in Maryland’s Coastal Bays.  |
| 11:30 – 11:50 | Jordan Roose (Salisbury Univ) – Denitrification Rates, Potential, and Limitations in Newly-Constructed Wetlands near Bishopville, MD   |
| 11:50- 12:15  | Roman Jesien (MCBP) – Updates: Islands, Fish Passage, Shorelines   |
| 12:15 – 12:45 | Rewarding lunch time discussions with subdued but breezy banter  |